Enjoy Scandalous Treats & Solve a Mystery with “I Remember Murder” at Kentlands Mansion

Gaithersburg, MD – (February 15, 2019) Arts on the Green and A Taste for Murder Productions present “I Remember Murder,” an audience participation murder mystery by Dean Fiala. Performances are Friday, March 22 and Saturday, March 23 at 8 p.m. and Sunday, March 24 at 2 p.m. in the beautiful and historic Kentlands Mansion. This event is appropriate for those 15 and older. Tickets are $35 per person, $60 per couple, and include a dessert buffet and non-alcoholic beverages. A cash bar will be available for those 21 and older. Photo ID required for alcohol sales.

While on vacation, Detective Virginia Tibbs responds to sounds of a gunshot from the nearby estate, only to find the family patriarch dead and the family at a loss for what to do next. With the local sheriff indisposed, Virginia convinces the family that the smartest course for finding the killer is to recall their actions and whereabouts leading up to the gunshot. Surrounded by a house full of suspects, all with suspect memories, Virginia must employ all of her wits and experience to flush out the killer before there’s another murder to remember.

Murder at the Mansion Dessert Theater features the talents of A Taste for Murder Productions, provider of professional interactive mystery theater performances throughout the DC metropolitan area. Artistic Director and Founder Laura W. Andruski is a trained theater professional with more than 20 years of experience performing for live audiences. The repertory company features the very best local and regional actors.

Kentlands Mansion is located at 320 Kent Square Road in Gaithersburg. Seating is limited and early reservation is recommended. Parking is free. Purchase tickets online here. For more information, visit www.gaithersburgmd.gov.
